Greetings St. Anselm Families,

We have just about made it through Lent. I am hearing that what staff members, and others around me, have "given up" has proven to be tough. In addition, we are all hopeful for Spring and warmer weather. The transition from Lent to Easter and winter into Spring can wear on us. I am grateful that we have made it this far and look forward to what's to come!

Here are some reminders and updates from my desk:

We will celebrate mass and stations of the cross two more times during this Lenten season. Friday (tomorrow) and Tuesday, you are welcome to join us for both. Our eighth graders have done an excellent job leading stations. Thank you to Ms. Allevato for preparing them so well. We also say congratulations to our eighth graders, again, on their recent Confirmation.

I want to also say 'thank you' to our parents who have stepped up to take over positions for our annual Card Party on April 15, our Vegas Room at the Fair, and some of our open booths at the Fair, too. I was pleasantly surprised to hear that we had parents to work the many positions Mrs. Stallions and I have been asking about for a couple of weeks. I appreciate your willingness to help as we know that we can not run these events without the aid of our families!

Next week, on Tuesday, all of the Dearborn Heights schools are meeting with the Dearborn Heights Police Department to organize methods to keep our schools safer. The police chief emailed the principals in the area and asked that we all come together to discuss what we can do to be more vigilant in the interest of our children. I will update you on the meeting details after Easter Break.

I know that many families are going on vacation over the Easter Break. If you are-- I wish you safe travels! Whether you are headed away from home or staying in Michigan, I ask that you take the Easter Break to do a few, quick things:

1. Clean our your students' backpacks. Look at folders, lunch boxes, and pencil cases. Throw away unnecessary items and check planners to see what has been assigned.
2. Check the online report cards. Has your student improved in three quarters, or is there an area where he/she has struggled? Talk to your student about how he/she feels about school and about his/her classes. Things change from year to year.
3. Wash everything. Uniforms, socks, sweaters, fleece, hats, gloves, coats-- everything.
4. Make sure the school calendar is hanging on the fridge so you can plan ahead for club meetings and after-school commitments.
5. Fill out your re-registration paperwork. For those students returning to Anselm, we need them registered so we can update PowerSchool and order books and planners. Our preschool class only has five spots left! Our eighth graders will be registering for high school classes in a couple of weeks. Spring has sprung and we are preparing for next year! Turn in that paperwork as soon as we return from break!

Thank you for your help with the above items!

Lastly, on Wednesday, April 18, our staff will be hosting a Curriculum Night/Open House for current and prospective families. You can come by and check out your student's work, speak with the staff, and there will be a presentation on financial aid. I will send reminders for this event, but it will tentatively take place from 6:00 -7:30 on 4/18/18. I hope you will join us! I wish you a wonderful weekend, and since we are only in school for two days next week, I will say, "Happy Easter and Safe Travels!"
